JOURNAL

Dedication

*Headmaster
Mr. Peter P. George*

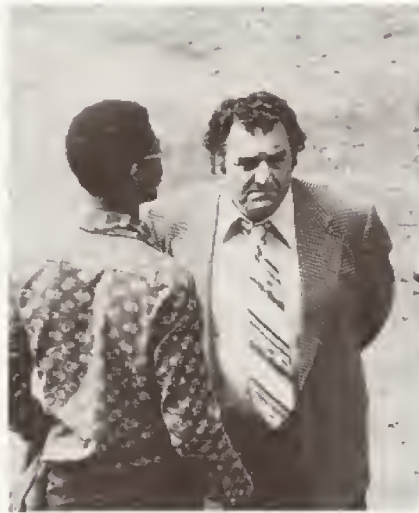

Knowing that this year has been such a nostalgic one, we felt that the dedication of our journal would have to be dedicated to a very special person, one truly worthy of this special recognition.

Therefore, we dedicate our Journal to our headmaster, Mr. Peter P. George. We thank you for all you have done and wish you success in the many years to follow.

Mr. Tripp wants to see me?

You ain't seen nothing yet!

I told you so!

This is my favorite class!

Sucking your thumb at your age!

Say pretty please!

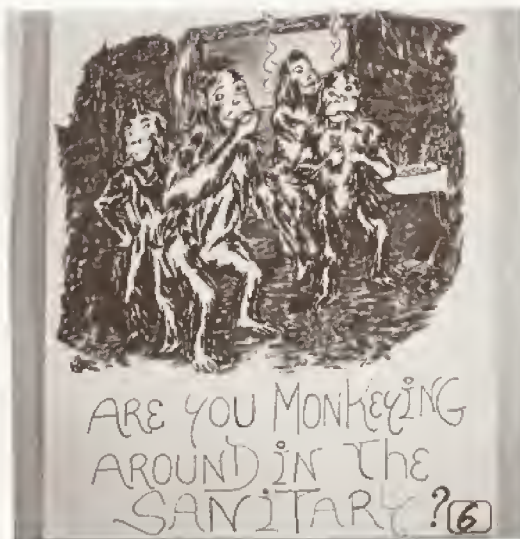

A-B-C-D-E-F-G . . .

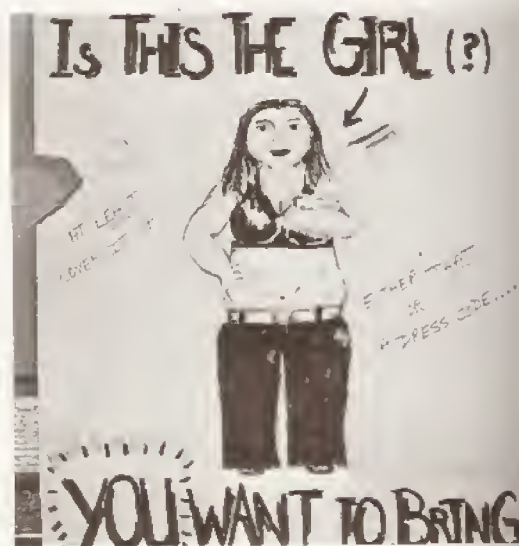

Sweet dreams!

What do you mean detention tomorrow?

Who's the wise guy that put gum on my chair?

"WHAT A TURKEY!"

Dear Reader:

Now that Journal '75 is complete, we hope that these words and pictures have helped to stir your own individual memories.

We realize that they aren't as individual or impressive as they once were, but then — memories never are.

We'd like to thank those individuals who aided in the production of our book — Mr. Januse, our advisor, Mr. George, Mr. John Levis of Taylor Publishing Company, Mr. Mike Marston of Dodge - Murphy Studios, the faculty and administration, and most important of all, YOU, the student body. For without you, there would be no JOURNAL — no memories.

THE JOURNAL STAFF

*As I leave these empty halls —
I realize that a part of my life has past —
No longer will I hear the laughter of friends, Nor the rush of feet.*

Never will I return to this holder of memories — ECHO

The doors are closed forever. ECHO

Fran Steeves IV
